>Chuck woke up to find the bed empty. He sat up and smelled something cooking. He got up and walked down the hall to the kitchen where he found Sarah making breakfast. She was wearing a baggy t-shirt and slippers. He moved behind her and hugged her from behind. She turned around and kissed him softly. They broke from the kiss and Sarah continued cooking. Chuck leaned against the counter and watched her. His like was going surprisingly well; he was engaged to the most amazing and the most badass woman in the world, he had a brand new niece, the intersect was working perfectly in his mind. Everything was perfect for the first time in 4 years. As he made coffee he spoke,

"So, wanted to play Martha Stewart again?" He said laughing softly.

He felt a playful slap on the arm from Sarah.

"Shut up. I thought it would be nice to have a real breakfast and to relax in bed all day because today is our day off in a long time." She said as she finished flipping pancakes and cooking bacon. Chuck placed a cup of coffee next to her and kissed her cheek. She smiled up at him and took all the food to the table. As they were sitting down they heard a knock at the door. Chuck went to open the door and saw Ellie standing in the door way holding baby Clara.

"Why hello sister! What brings you here?" He asked. Ellie smiled softly and spoke,

"Chuck, we need to talk." She said. Chuck's smile faded quickly and he nodded. Sarah sensed that something was wrong and stood up.

"I can watch Clara as you two speak." She said. Ellie smiled and handed the infant to her future sister in law and guided Chuck outside. They sat down on the fountain and Ellie sighed,

"Elle, whats going on? You're scaring me." Chuck said nervously. Ellie looked up at him and spoke,

"Chuck, you know how dad left me his car right?" he nodded, "Well, I found a computer under the driver seat." Chucks eyes widened

"The Orion computer." He said. Ellie looked puzzled,

"Yes, how did you kno-" she looked up at him, "You knew I had the computer." She said. Chuck nodded in defeat,

"Yes I knew, Awesome told me about it. Why didn't you tell me?" He asked. She broke eye contact.

"I didn't want you to get involved in the spy life again." She said. She looked up and saw that his eyes were widen like he was hiding something.

"Chuck, why are you hiding?" She said.

"Well..." She broke him off,

"You're still a spy aren't you?" She asked angrily. He nodded. She sighed

"Why didn't you tell me that you were still a spy!? Do you know how dangerous that is!" She said angrily. He looked up at her and spoke with the same angry tone,

"Why didn't you tell me you had one of dads computers?! You have no idea how dangerous that computer is!" He said. She sighed

"You're right." They both calmed down and Chuck spoke,

"Did you find anything?" He asked. She nodded

"Yes, that is what I came to talk to you about. In the computer there were files hidden. I've cracked the code and gained access to the files. Chuck, they were files on us. You, me and mom." She said. Chuck looked puzzled,

"Why would files about us be on the orion computer?" She shrugged her shoulders,

"I have no clue but I read them and they contained everything about our lives; our birth certificates, school records, medical records, school photos and so much more were on there. He kept records of us before and after he left. Mom too, everything that had to do with her was in the file." She said. Chuck nodded,

"No offense sis but what is the big deal? He probably wanted to keep tabs on us after he left." He said. Ellie shook her head.

"I got why our files were on the computer but I came across another file names 'Louise'. I opened it and saw two items, one was a picture of a baby and the other was a birth certificate; everything was blacked out except for a first name, date of birth and mothers first initial; Louise, born March 24th 1992, Mother's initial M." Chuck looked at his sister with confusion.

"Ellie, what does that mean?" He asked. She made eye contact with his and spoke,

"Chuck, why would dad have a file on an unknown woman with his personal files? Why would he have a birth certificate of a woman born almost 10 months after mom left with no last name and her mother's initial of 'M'?" She said. Chuck, in realization looked up at his sister,

"Ellie... what are you trying to say?" He asked. She sighed and spoke,

"Chuck, I think we have a sister."
